

Dear FCC,

The Internet was made for the people to be a fair, and nonpartisan tool for everyone to express and utilize our 1st amendment right of free speech. Taking away the neutrality of the internet goes against everything that this country stands for; as well as the wants and needs of the majority of the people you are employed to serve. Disabling the neutrality of the internet is dangerous course of action.